Local Merchants Cannot Send Their Wares to the Exposition Grounds.

SPECIAL BOAT LINE SUGGESTED

Chamber of Commerce Appoints Com mittee to Wait Upon Terminal Co. Quarantine Committee's Report Is Adopted and Committee Will Go to Washington.

Trouble experienced by local merchants in getting their wares transported to Pine Beach and the Jamestown Exposition grounds was the subject of an interesting discussion at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night. Mr. A. Rosenbaum brought the matter to the attention of the chamber and asked that steps be taken to remedy conditions. Trouble experienced by local mer-

Mr. Rosenbaum stated that since ditions.

Mr. Rosenbaum stated that since the Norfolk & Atlantic Terminal Company passed out of the hands of the street railways on this side of Hampton Roads, the steamer between try avenue and Pine Reach had not been handling freight and on this account the merchants here are losing valuable trade.

Mr. Cotterille, Suggestion

Mr. Cottrell's Suggestion.

Mr. W. E. Cottrell, governor of works for the Jamestown Exposition, was called upon to offer a suggestion. Saying that the only thing for the merchants to do was 10 start a boat line of their own, Mr. Cottrell suggested that a small boat be secured and run temporarily in order to see whether or not there is basiness enough to justify maintaining a line permanently. He went on to say that he was sure that he exposition company would not object to the incompany would not object to the use of its commercial pier by the boat.

Burning Soot.

Burning soot in a chimney of the residence of Justice of the Peace R. B. Semmes, 116 Thirty-first street, caused two alarms of fire to be turned in yesterday, the first at 7.15 o'clock in the morning and the second at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The Central fire company respondes to each alarm, but in each instance the soot had burned away before the firemen arrived.

BUSINESS SENSE.

A Well Ordered Desk Menns a Well Ordered Mind.

"There's one piece of advice," said the senior partner, "that I'd like to give every young man taking a busihess position with a desk attached to it. It's this: Keep your desk clean. What I mean by having a desk clean, to keeping everything possible off it except that which is related to the heatter in hand. I've observed in my time a good many men in their offices, and I can say that with very few exceptions the real men of affairs are those who are free from clutter.

With a lot of papers in front of you s aimost a certainty that some hour day you're going to be flustered, yery Biely it will be just when with a clear head. The old idea a mass of material every which on the desk is a sign that a person ill of business is pretty well out-i. Such a collection not only india lack of order, but also is a sign at nervousness may be expected from e man in the chair. What with filing nels and other devices no excuse
